

Student A: Compare two of the pictures and describe how they relate to the natural world. What are some of the ways that people can connect with nature through these activities?

Student B: Which picture do you think captures the most interesting moment and why?